Consumers Power Co. Plans Power Interruption

To permit the "cutting in" of improved power supply facilities in the Houghton Lake and Higgins Lake areas and surrounding territory, Consumers Power Company will interrupt electric service here between the hours of 1:30 A. M. and 5:30 A. M., November 7, 1951. In case of bad weather this will be postponed 24 hours.

This interruption will permit Consumers to energize a new 140,000 volt to 46,000 volt substation known as Higgins Substation. This will be fed from a new high voltage transmission line just constructed between Mio Dam and the present Higgins Substation, located near M-18 between Prudenille and Roscommon and will provide a few high voltage source of electric power to this area.

During the power outage several construction crews will be brought in from Cadillac to assist the Prudenille staff with maintenance and construction work on the 4,800 volt and 14,400-volt distribution lines.

Service will be off in the Houghton Lake area, Higgins Lake area, Roscommon, Merritt, Modersville and surrounding territory including the Michigan National Guard Camp, Grayling.

Vikings Drop Grid Season Final To Houghton Lake

Grayling Loses But Three By Graduation

The Grayling High Vikings dropped their final game of the 1951 gridiron season at the City Park Field to Houghton Lake last Friday afternoon by a 25 to 6 score.

In a game which had breaks played a major part of the one sided score, Grayling showed more offensive punch than at any time during the season. Every drive, the Vikings started however, was stopped by a fumble, intercepted pass or penalty.

Grayling kicked off to the Lakers who marched straight down the field for a touchdown in a series of plays that netted them about five yards per try. Houghton then kicked off to Grayling who also began a march. Five plays netted them about 20 yards and carried them well into the visitors territory when a mixup in the backfield resulted in a fumble which Houghton-Lake recovered. In a few plays, they were on Grayling's 20 yard line where the Vikings defense stiffened and appeared as they would hold the rampaging Lakers. A long punt then carried the ball down to the Grayling one yard line from where Houghton-Lake punched over their second touchdown to make the score 12 to 0.

Grayling received the kickoff and drove to midfield where Houghton-Lake intercepted a Viking pass. The Lakers ran but a few plays, when Grayling intercepted one of their passes. The Vikings then began a march that carried them down the field for their touchdown making the score as the half ended, 12 to 6.

In the second half, Houghton-Lake kicked off and Grayling began a long sustained march that carried them to the shadows of the Lakers goal posts. A touch down looked sure as the Vikings were on the move. Then Warren Hatfield, Viking center, playing with a badly sprained thumb, lost his grip on the ball and let it get away on the pass back. A Houghton-Lake lineman pounced on the ball and the Viking scoring threat was nipped. Houghton-Lake then marched the length of the field to score again. Late in the fourth quarter, they punched over their fourth score against a then disheartened Grayling eleven.

The game was one of the best played this year in the respect that neither team could stop the offensive power of the other. Many long runs were piled up as the two teams marched from one end of the field to the other.

As the Vikings closed their season only three boys were playing their last game. These three seniors were Jerry Barber, Rex Hunter and Skip Hanson. Grayling will be able to nearly field the same starting team next year as they used this season. Eight regulars will be returning.

These seniors played very well in the last gridiron appearance for the Vikings. Hanson showed up well on both offense and defense as he broke through for tackles behind the line of scrimmage while piling up considerable yardage on offense. Barber and Hunter were the boys in the line that were opening the big holes in the Houghton-Lake forward wall through which the Viking backs were breaking through to pile up yards gained.

Resident 70 Years Laid To Rest

Mrs. Andrew Peterson was laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery, Thursday, October 25th following rites read at her home at 2 P. M. and at the Grayling Evangelical Lutheran Church at 2:30 P. M. Rev. John Enselmann officiated. Mrs. Roy Milnes, soloist, sang "Going Home" accompanied by the C. G. Chippert at the organ. Pallbearers were Mrs. Peterson's sons, Axel L. Peterson, of Grayling, Holger Peterson, of Bladen, Md., Short, of Hillsdale and Roy McEvers of this city.

Mrs. Peterson passed away at her home on Chestnut Street on Monday, October 22nd.

Karen Margrethe Peterson was born in Falster, Denmark, April 22nd, 1865 and was the first emigrant girl to come direct from Denmark to Grayling, where she arrived in November, 1881 at the age of sixteen, to work for her cousin, Mrs. Sorenson who was at that time operating the old Manistee House. Three years later on March 28, 1884, she was married to Andrew Peterson, who established and operated the first and for many years the only jewelry store in Grayling. On her twentieth birthday the house at 403 Cedar Street was completed and occupied continuously for forty-seven years. There her seven children were born and six of them reared.

Following her husband's death on June 28, 1928, the old house was sold. She returned to Denmark but ties in Grayling were too strong to remain away from very long. Upon her return the present home at 708 Chestnut Street was purchased and rebuilt and it was here that she spent the latter years of her life enjoying to the fullest extent her most cherished pastime, planting and tending the many varieties of flowers and shrubs that she loved so well.

Mrs. Peterson was one of the founders of the Grayling Danish Lutheran Church and an active member of the Danish Ladies Aid throughout her life time, and few people could claim the feeling of pride that was hers both as related to her own immediate surrounding and all things concerning the welfare of the Grayling community as a whole.

Mrs. Peterson is survived by two daughters, Hilda Katrina, Emma Peteria and four sons, Holger F. Carl W. Axel J. Thorvald L. and three grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren.

Farm Loan Law Change Helpful

Farmers who borrow from the Farmers Home Administration will be better able to make adjustments in farming operations, increase production and work out balanced farm and home management plans under the newly enacted Public Law 122, according to Mr. J. C. Young, local FHA supervisor.

The law, amending the Farmers Home Administration Act of 1946, enables the agency to make loans for farm operating expenses up to $7,000 for an initial loan and places a ceiling of $10,000 on the indebtedness outstanding at any one time. The maximum repayment period is seven years. Previously the initial loan was limited to $3,500, the maximum in indebtedness to $5,000 and the maximum repayment period to five years.

In amending the loan terms, Congress recognized that the costs of farm operating expenses have increased sharply in recent years. Mr. Young explained, "A farmer who required a $4,000 loan in 1946 for annual operating expenses and the purchase of machinery and live stock would have required a loan of $5,900 for the same purpose in 1951."

"The main objective of the Farmers Home Administration is to help family farm operators make the most efficient use of their land and family labor supply. The new loan terms will be of great help in achieving this goal. In the past we have had to turn down many veterans and other farmers who came to us for assistance simply because we could not provide them with adequate financing under our previous loan limitation to enable them to work out a balanced farming system." A sound farm and home management plan is drawn up with each family who receives a loan, and no loan is made unless the plan shows that the family will receive enough income to pay operating and living expenses and retire their debts, Mr. Young pointed out. Loans are made only to farmers who are unable to obtain necessary financing from other sources. Committees of three local farmers approve each applicant. Veterans receive preference.

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railroad Conductors got into to refuse. It is a matter of time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 180,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railroad Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. On a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 120,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $3.4 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk to you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

Grass Roots Opinions

Bedford, Va., Bulletin: "That section of the Constitution which limits authority of the government at Washington by leaving with the states all powers and authority not specifically reserved to the Federal government has for a long time been ignored. The truth of this is seen in the increasing projection of Federal interference into practically every field of business and public life."

Le Mars, Iowa, Globe-Post: "Every person in America from the day old child to the 100 years old man has an average tax load of a dollar a day. The cost of government is far more than the cost of food."

Forest City, Pa., News: "We have been reading this week of the prospect that first class postage is to be increased from three to four cents, and the venerable postal go up from a penny to two cents. Then we go to the post office and get a couple of pieces of mail from the Price Stabilization organization. Both are news releases. One a single letter-sized sheet is housed in a ten inch envelope; the other two small single sheets of paper come in a big catalogue envelope that would cost at least $10 a thousand at wholesale. This at a time when every newspaper is learning to its sorrow that all paper products are going up in price by leaps and bounds. Won't some one please page the Hoover Economy-in-Government committee?"

"One frequently hears that if private capital will not flow abroad then the Federal government must make loans and investments in underdeveloped countries. Why has the government a right to take risks which are rejected as excessive by experienced persons who invest their own funds? No great genius is required to lose money. If foreign loans and investments are not profitable the recipient countries fail to benefit, at the same time that the wealth of the United States is wasted."—W. W. Cumberland.

Michigan Mirror

In this dilemma lies the strength of the state reorganization program.

The hubbub over the cent-an-a-half-per-gallon gasoline tax still is raising smoke around Lansing. With Fred M. Alger, Jr., committed to an examination of the signatures on the C.I.O. sponsored petitions to put the tax to a referendum, Robert Poe, C.I.O. lobbyist, and Sen. Joseph P. Cloon (R-Wakefield) raised a ruckus over the Goods Roads Federation lobby on the tax.

Poe said an investigation of the GRF lobby "would make the lobbies investigated by Kim Sigler look like tea parties." Said Cloon, "Put up or shut up." Poe: "The hit bird flutters." Cloon: "A lot of birds are shot illegally."

And so on and on and on. But Gus Scholle, C. I. O. state president, say there might be a grand jury investigation of the GRF lobby methods. Significant: Democrat legislators fought unsuccessfully to defeat the one-man grand jury bill.

Michigan's farmers still pack a power punch in state government. Witness the atomic action bestowed upon the banning of using rifles for deer south of the Muskegon Bay City line and in the thumb. They get results. The ban was whisked into law, even if it required a special session of the legislature.

Conservation officials previously had revealed they hadn't authority to enforce a commission ruling against rifles. Also they revealed that most previous violators had been—you guessed it, the farmers.

A new boom in copper for Michigan's upper peninsula may be on the way. The boom will be based on critical need for the metal and will center around undeveloped ore bodies.

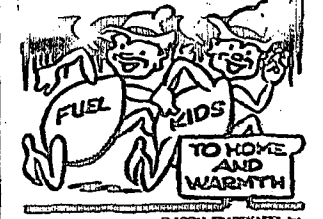

Some 1,115 men will be called up from Michigan during December for induction into the armed forces.

Michigan teachers long claiming that the educational system is being attacked by unscrupulous forces have their answer. Says Miss Margaret Stevenson, national education association official: "The cure . . . is closer cooperation with the public."

When the Michigan house of representatives over Democratic objections adopted a concurrent resolution to invite Gen. Douglas MacArthur to address the legislature, Ed Carey (D-Detroit) quipped, "I wonder when he is going to fade away." The legislature officially commended MacArthur in a concurrent resolution adopted last spring.

Fire Prevention and Civil Defense Go Hand in Hand

Fire prevention is an important part of civil defense. If an enemy attacks this country, his bombs, whether they be atomic, high explosive, or incendiary, will cause more damage by fire than they will by blast. Hence, anything done to make it hard for fires to start is a step towards preparing your community to protect itself if war comes.

The majority of all fires start in trashpiles, rubbish, or stored odds and ends that accumulate around the house. Closets, attics, and cellars are the main source of home fires, and plain ordinary good housekeeping is a strong line of defense against them.

Clean out your storage places. You will be surprised at how many burnable odds and ends are really useless to you. Don't let them make your home a fire hazard. Get rid of them. If local welfare agencies can't use them, call the junk man.

Don't stop when you've cleared out the inside of your house. Go after rubbish in your back yard, in alleys and in vacant lots near your home. Collect the rubbish and burn it. Don't leave it around to burn if an enemy bombs your city. Be sure to burn rubbish in metal containers.

Take a look at your electrical system. Buy new plugs and cords if yours are worn. Get advice from an electrician if your fuses blow frequently. They may be dangerously overloaded. His advice may prevent a bad fire.

Every winter costly fires are started by faulty furnaces, stoves, and other heating plants. Some result from too much soot in chimneys. Others are caused by rusted or cracked pipes and fittings. Look over your heating system now. If your chimney needs it, clean it out. If the furnace pipes and connections are cracked and rusted, replace them.

Teach your family not to put magazines, papers, or clothing on radiators or near open flames. Don't hang flimsy curtains near your kitchen stove. Don't allow lamp shades to come in contact with light bulbs. Remember that such things don't have to touch flame to burn. They will catch fire simply because they are too close to the heat for too long.

Gasoline, benzine, naphtha, and similar fluids should never be used indoors. When mixed with air, their vapors can be ignited by the spark of a light switch or an electric fan, or the tiny flame of a pilot light. Keep such fluids in tightly closed metal containers outside your home.

And remember: oil-soaked rags, especially rags that have been used to spread quick-drying liquids such as turpentine, paint thinners, and some furniture polishes, can catch fire by themselves. Oily rags should be stored in air-tight metal containers. It is best to keep them outside the house.

Vacuum Principle Utilized In Army Boot

A new-style rubber boot which operates on the principle of the vacuum bottle will be worn by the American GI in Korea this winter to keep his feet warm even at 10 degrees below zero.

The new boot—designed to be worn with only one pair of socks—consists of two layers of rubber with two plies of 19-ounce knitted wool insulation between them.

A one-half inch of wool felt insulates the inner bottom of the boot.

The boots have been shipped to Korea after three seasons of testing in Alaska.

They are being sold exclusively in Grayling by the Grayling Mercantile Company.

Rep. Emil Peltz Now On Mend

Honorable Emil A. Peltz of Rogers City, State Representative from the Presque Isle District left the Sparrow Hospital in Lansing for his home in Rogers City on Wednesday, October 24, where he has been under observation after suffering a collapse on October 9 following a meeting with the Governor and conservation groups in Lansing, relative to the use of high-powered rifles used for deer hunting in the lower portion of the State.

Mr. Peltz will be in the Rogers City Hospital for a couple of weeks and will recuperate at his home until the first of the year after leaving the hospital. He regrets very much his inability, during the next few weeks, to attend several meetings with various groups in the other counties of his district which he had planned to attend. However, he expects to be able to resume his seat in the Legislature when it convenes the second Wednesday in January.

Women Reglers Enjoy Hallowe'en

The Grayling Women's Bowling League observed the annual Hallowe'en dress up party last Thursday evening at Spike's Recreation. Each year the occasion provides many laughs for the spectators and a hat is passed for donations to be given to the fund for the Legion's Christmas party for the "small fry" of Grayling and prizes are awarded for the best costumes.

The winning team on the first shift bowling was Shirlee Shoppe all cleverly dressed as monkeys. The couple winning was Madonna LaMotte and Helen Jankoviak wearing the latest thing in pirate attire. The prize for most original was awarded to Rosie Duley who was a very authentic "Little Red Riding Hood." Thelma McWilliams and Laura Gould won prizes for the funniest and individual costumes respectively, dressed as monkeys. Thelma Madson dressed as Riding Hood's grandma, won consolation prize. Dorothy Stillwagon, though she wasn't awarded a prize had a very clever and original creation. She was dressed as a "Wolf in Sheep's clothing."

On the second shift Spikes Recreation won the team prize all dressed as harem dancers. Clever costumes portraying an old man and old woman worn by Amy Gothro and Erma Burch won them the couple prize. Marge Flower dressed in what in its day was a lovely ensemble of black velvet with red roses as trimming took honors for individuality. Elma Mae Mosher won the prize for the most original being clad in long black cloak and hood and skeleton face with a sign on her back saying "Drive Carefully you may be the millionth traffic victim." Doris Lozon was deemed funniest dressed as an imbibing bum, with a big tummy Lillian Ryan on consolation prize with her "sarong."

Prizes for the affair were donated by: Grayling Mercantile Co., Grayling Gift Shop, Dawson's, The Avalanche, Peterson Hardware, Ron's Hardware, Baringer's, Sorenson's Sporting Goods, Mac's Drug Store, B-C-D Co. Inc., and Grayling 5c to $1.00 Store. Judges were Mrs. Lorne Douglas, Miss Gloria Moore and Jack Alef. All in all the affair was enjoyed by all those taking part as well as those looking on. That one is over. What will we wear next year gals?

P. T. A. MEETING

A combined meeting of the county school board officers and Parents-Teachers Association was held at Grayling High School Wednesday evening of last week. The program was in charge of Willard Cornell, County School Commissioner, who introduced the speakers, Wilfred Clapp, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction and Miss Esther Belcher of the Department of Public Instruction, Lansing. They showed a movie entitled "Problem Children" and answered questions asked by the audience. The discussion was most interesting. The Girl's Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Roy Milnes rendered three numbers and Miss Phyllis Goss gave a flute solo accompanied by Miss Joan Andrews at the piano.

The 8th grade won the room count.

Mrs. Ron Hanson was chairman of the lunch committee and was assisted by Mrs. Kilnefelt, Mrs.

Don Smock, Mrs. Norman Madson, Mrs. Alva Stephan and Mrs. William Hall, hospitality chairman.

Of interest to the public is the fact that Miss Ruth Rogers of the Department of Health, Lansing will be at the high school on Tuesday, November 13 to speak on fluorine treatment for children's teeth. She will speak at 3:15 p. m. and parents are urged to attend.

The next P.T.A. meeting will be Monday evening, November 12 and is to be an open house and get acquainted party.
